

12th

Annual Ulster & Dutchess Fire Police Educational Seminar

(endorsed by Region 2, VFPASNY)

Saturday, November 6th

The Highland Fire Department

at the intersections of Route 9W, 44/55,

two traffic lights north of the Poughkeepsie Bridge

Registration 8:00 A.M.

Seminar 9:00 A.M. – 4:00 P.M.

Mini-Breakfast , Lunch & Seminar = $15 pp in advance, $20 pp at the door

This seminar is open to all Fire Police and Law Enforcement Departments from any county, and will contain exceptional speakers. Key topics and Presenters include: Response to Active Shooter & Hostile Events by Chief Eric Ericksen, Director of the Ulster County Dept. Emergency Services, Police Officer (Twn. Of Marlborough); Arson Awareness and Investigation, and Your Role as a Fire Police Officer; by Investigator Deputy Sheriff Paul Reinheimer, Dutchess County Sheriff's Office, Fire & Arson Investigation Unit

Expect a great and informative seminar with your peers

NOTE Carefully: To help our host plan for breakfast and lunch, respond in advance with payment for anticipated number and the names of attendees from your department and name of your county (checks payable to the Vol. Fire Police Assn of Ulster County). Send to Ulster Cty. Vol. Fire Police, P.O. Box 153, Modena, NY 12458. Advance registrations of $15 per person must be received by October 16th, otherwise registrants will be charged the at door rate of $20. For questions, send an email to UCFirePolice2020@yahoo.com for an immediate response.

The committee consisting of Mike Depaola, John Snykus, Karen Baxter, Tim O'dell, Bill Griffin, and Bob Ruston, look forward to seeing you on November 6th for this super educational conference. Certificates of participation will be given to account for LOSAP training hours earned.