DECEASED

Above are the names of those honored members who, as President, have led this Association since 1953. They have been responsible in maintaining our organization's stature by retaining open communications and forging ahead with present day standards.

We thank these leaders for doing such a splendid job as our faithful and dedicated leaders. And, we know that all those whose names shall become a part of this honorable list will continue in these endeavors to maintain the same code of ethics and devoted professionalism. Thank you for all your years of true dedicated and honorable service for our Association's welfare.
